General Information about the Beneficiaries	Phan Bội Châu Primary School is located in a remote commune of Krông Pắc District. It takes 40 minutes on pumpy trails to get to the school from the main road. 85% of the students here are ethnic people whose parents immigrated from the North of Vietnam and local ethnic groups. There has been a decrease in number of students here due to the economic hardship in the area as well as the poor schooling condition. There is a classroom which has been renovated as a library but at poor condition and lacking lots of books and necessary facilities. the teachers here have struggled with the lack of teaching facility and proper orientations of monitoring library. There is a real need for more books, computers, and a proper library.
